

Meishu-sama and Jorei

Meishu-sama (the spiritual name of Mokichi Okada) founded our Jorei Organization on January 1, 1935 and his disciple, Mr. Kihara, continued this divinely inspired work in June, 1941 by establishing - with Meishu-sama's guidance - Shin Kenko Kyokai's original headquarters in Sasebo, Nagasaki.

Jorei's avowed mission is to create a peaceful world of health and abundance through Meishu-sama's teachings and the divine light we receive through JOREI. This will eradicate the root cause of spiritual impurities which results in strife, sickness, and poverty.

Differing radically from ideas dating far back to the Dark Ages, Meishu-sama's teachings boldly herald the coming Age of Light. Since everything is charged with positive and negative energy, one day embraces both night and day and, one year, the profound seasonal distinction between summer and winter. Also included are night-to-day transformations that we do not easily perceive. These occur every ten, hundred, thousand, and ten thousand years. Our present transformation from night to day is playing out in the spiritual world on a grand scale of several thousands of years. We in the material world, living and being affected within this cycle, have long been mired in the Dark Ages, a most difficult and trying era now drawing to a close. Together, we are finally entering the Age of Light's glorious dawn.

The wonders of this very light have been made understandable to Meishu-sama as a gift from God. His divinely inspired teachings relate to the whole spectrum of human experience.

Over the years, Meishu-sama came to realize that all errors made in the past were caused by the stunted development of our largely materialistic culture. Most significantly, he determined that sickness should not be regarded as a negative state, but one which serves us well by cleansing and purifying spirit and body. Medicine is toxic and, in the long run, can actually ruin a healthy life because it impedes and ultimately halts this purification process. Any truly beneficial method of treatment will aid these natural phenomena as they operate on our behalf.

Today, the spiritual aspect of culture is in full force and catching up with the physical. Soon both will be marching forward together in a balanced state towards the establishment of an ideal world: Heaven on Earth. In other words, balance is brought about as the spiritual emanations increasingly suffuse the physical realm. And thus, Jorei functions as a necessary means to channel Divine light. In the everyday mundane world, Jorei's benefits are obvious and abundant, and speak for themselves.

When giving Jorei, Divine Light, we hold our hand at a distance of just one or two feet from the recipient who need not be touched. With this simple process, even patients in acute physical distress start improving at once with rapidly diminished or eliminated pain. The person offering Jorei may be a novice initiate without any medical background, while the recipient may be someone several doctors gave up on, yet this transformative, purifying process is always powerfully effective.

Jorei is a method to channel Divine light through the spiritual connection one establishes via Initiation. Simply stated: As Divine energy permeates a human body, it transforms into Divine light and radiates out of one's palm. In Japanese, JO means to purify and REI means spirit or soul. At the beginning of a JOREI session, we ask Meishu-sama for an infusion of Divine energy and, afterwards, we thank Him. It is similar to receiving a phone call and hanging up when the conversation is over. Through Initiation, we secure the spiritual connection between Meishu-sama and ourselves so that we will be able to help others as His healing hands.

To understand the principles of Jorei, we must first acknowledge that our world is divided into two realms: the physical and the spiritual. The relationship between these two domains is analogous to the one between the film and the screen in a movie theater — the film being the spiritual world of heaven, while the screen represents the earth's material plane. Matter is a phenomenon that occurs first in the spiritual world, but eventually assumes tangible form on earth.

In human form, our fate in the physical realm is determined by the precise location of our spirit in the spiritual realm and we may ascend or descend relative to our words, deeds, and thoughts. In the spiritual world, there are many different levels. The lower down the spirit goes, the more suffering encountered. Difficulties, however, can be alleviated by going up the steps and, as the spirit mounts, pleasure gradually increases. Exact placement, however, is determined by the degree of a spirit's purity.

When Jorei is received, spiritual clouds lift first. As a result of these diminishing impurities, we elevate ourselves spiritually and thus become healthier, happier and wealthier as physical beings. This is an expression of the Universal law which deems spirit primary and the body secondary. All matter originates in spirit. Herein lies the significance of Jorei which removes clouds from the spiritual body. Receiving Jorei alleviates both physical and emotional distress because the source of suffering itself has been eliminated.

Now, what produces clouds? In our view, two major factors bring murkiness to spirit: One cause is clearly attitudinal, expressed through unsavory personal conduct — from the smallest instance of hurting someone else's feelings, to the extreme act of murder. The second cause of spiritual cloudiness is mostly hidden. It is the internal toxic build-up.

Our bodies are contaminated by our consumption of food teeming with agro-chemicals, hormones, antibiotics and other artificial additives. We also experience significant stress on a day-to-day basis, along with a bombardment of medicinal and environmental toxins.

Poison pollutes our blood. Spirit mirrors our blood which nourishes and sustains the physical body. Accumulated toxins in the brain dim perception, thereby distorting judgment. It would be easy to explain crime's steady increase by asserting that people cannot distinguish good from bad with their foggy minds and confused spirits.

Universal law deems spirit primary and the body secondary in importance. Thus, an individual's fate depends on the degree of his or her spiritual cloudiness. As we continue our ascent into the clearer, higher, light-filled realms, we become happier. Awareness of this principle is the first step to achieving paradise on earth. Let us remember that the physical and spiritual worlds perfectly mirror each other. Radiant Virtue, therefore, is an essential quality for one's personal evolution and ultimate happiness.

The difficult conditions that manifest as sickness accompany any other human misfortune; they are all part of the purification work. This cleansing process assumes diverse forms and aspects on the physical plane. We can experience it in the form of financial difficulties or losses from natural disasters, undesirable relationships, accidents, and all the ensuing emotional distress. Though not an "easy" regime, deep cleansing is a powerful means of improving any situation. A magnificent divine blessing will be bestowed soon after the purification work is completed. Knowing that it's all working in your favor, stay steadfast, positive, and patient — never doubt the process — and your life will surely become healthier, happier, and more prosperous.

As for Meishu-sama's own experience, he had groaned under the heavy weight of debt for 20 years, struggling in vain to find a way out of this harsh circumstance. He was finally relieved in 1941 when he repaid all his creditors. Then, from 1942 on, he began to earn an unexpectedly large income. Once again, he was astonished by the profound working of God's will.

We often hear that some people become richer after fire; luck now favors them as they have gone through the purification work.

It now becomes obvious that good things are, of course, wonderful, but bad things resulting from the purification process will also finally turn to your great benefit. Either way, you cannot lose. You will have peace of mind by merely accepting the state of sickness in reality as the process of achieving wellness. We would therefore say that the key to our happiness is truly understanding the purification process.

 What does it mean to be human?

Being human means having higher dimensional energy within one’s physical body.

 What, then, is higher dimensional energy?

By its very nature, energy of this kind cannot usually be seen, heard, smelled, tasted, or felt. When sound exceeds a certain frequency, we simply do not hear it. A dog, however, can tune into higher frequencies beyond our normal auditory range. Bats fly without bumping into things at high speed using their own form of ultra-sonic “radar.” We are deaf to what they hear. And while high-frequency, electro-magnetic waves elude us, we do know that radio, TV, and cellular phones all work because of a common energetic component. When light is broken down into different colors, each hue vibrates at its own frequency, together achieving a higher collective frequency than that of sound. We can neither see nor comprehend the physicality of light. Surpassing it, though, are higher dimensional, higher energetic beings, otherwise known as Spirit.

 What is Jorei?

Utilizing Divine Light, Jorei purifies Spirit in its higher dimensional, higher energetic form.

In modern life, we are particularly susceptible to bodily contamination via chemical ingestion, unhealthy diet and apolluted environment. When we ingest toxins, the vibratory rate of our higher energetic core is sharply reduced. In order to facilitate the return of that natural, healthy state, bodily cleansing freely and spontaneously takes place. This is what people call sickness and regard as an enemy. But once we realize its true purpose, we are able to accept sickness as we would accept any positive process. Human, animals, and plants all have different vibratory frequencies: the lower our personal frequency, the baser our actions. When, on the other hand, personal frequency is raised, our actions assume God-like attributes.

Conventional farming requires a variety of insecticides due to soil previously contaminated by agrochemicals, which lowered the vibratory rate of plants that had grown there. In effect, the original vibratory rate, designed for human consumption, had been downgraded to the rate of insect food. We practice Natural Farming to help vegetation keep up its healthy, higher vibratory rate, so it will not attract insects of prey. In the same way, as we raise our healthy vibratory rate - or simply maintain it - upon the application of Jorei, we can either strengthen our immune system - or preserve its health- as viruses are not attracted by healthy frequencies.

 Jorei as a Living Principle

Our higher energetic being is basically composed of the Fire Element. In Japanese, human is “hi-to.” “Hi” means fire and “to” means harbor, which makes us human matter that harbors this fire. Functioning as a natural process, Jorei utilizes the universe’s abundant Fire Element to purify Spirit. By administering Jorei to a sick individual the harsher aspects of cleansing can be reduced, and health quickly restored.

 How to use the Fire Element

Thanks to Mokichi Okada - a.k.a. Meishu-sama - we know how to use the universe’s Fire Element. When giving Jorei, say, “Meishu-sama” to yourself and put one hand over a designated area, while projecting the Fire Element. Imagine a flashlight shining on that area. In this simple manner, while communing with Meishu-sama, the Fire Element can be accessed. Saying “Meishu-sama” is the key here - it is just like logging onto the Internet, with Meishu-sama as your service provider. There are different levels of Internet service - from basic dial-up all the way to high-speed DSL. Ratings may help you determine the right provider for you, but personal trial use is the most reliable way. So, please visit your local Center or Branch to experience the full range of Jorei services.
